Wrecks the Town of Rich Hill, Missouri.

FIRE AT NICHOLASVILLE.

Lewis, the Notorious Murderer, Hanged Today.

OTHER HAPPENINGS OF A DAY.

Rich Hill, Mo., June 25.—A disastrous cyclone swept through this county this morning. Over one hundred houses in the path of the storm were destroyed and fifty persons were injured. All kinds of stock were killed. It is impossible to learn at this hour the full particulars of the storm. It is reported that Sedalia also felt the effect of the storm and has suffered severely.

WEST UP IN FLAMES.

The Business Portion of Nicholasville Burned.

Nicholasville, Ky., June 25.—A disastrous fire occurred in this place this morning. The fire broke out in the business part of the town and spread rapidly. Five business houses, three offices and two residences were destroyed before the flames were subdued. The loss is estimated at something like forty thousand dollars.

RIOTS IN SPAIN.

Heavy Fighting Between 8,000 Miners and the Government Troops.

Madrid, June 24.—Serious rioting has taken place at Mieres, in the Oviedo province, which was supposed to be due to the increased taxes on food. There was heavy fighting between 8,000 miners and the Spanish troops, consisting of the civil guards and the Prince's regiment. Two rioters were killed and five severely and many slightly wounded. Two soldiers were killed and several wounded.

THE HEMP ROUTE.

Notorious Murderer Hanged at Noon Today.

Chicago, Ill., June 25.—The recognized leader of the famous Lewis gang of murderers was hanged at noon today.

RUN OUT OF TOWN.

Mormon Elders Not Wanted at Meridian, Miss.

Meridian, Miss., June 24.—Elders Lydale, Pomeroy, Parish and Jones, four Mormon elders from Utah, were run out of Meridian this afternoon. They have been in the city several days arranging for meetings and yesterday began a house to house canvass for the purpose of securing converts. This invasion of private residences so aroused the people that a large crowd gathered at the artesian well at junction of Fourth street and Twenty-third avenue this afternoon, and when they attempted to hold services the elders were politely but firmly notified by a committee of citizens, headed by the Hon. John W. Fowell, that the people would not allow the privacy of their homes to be invaded, and that the elders must leave town. They left on the first train.

DESTRUCTIVE

Storm Does Serious Damage in and About St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 24.—A terrific wind and rain storm, which prevailed today, was very destructive in the southwestern section of the city, where are located several of the city institutions. The poor-house suffered most. One of the buildings, in which were sheltered seventy-five inmates, all of them cripples, was partly demolished, and glass was shattered in the others. When the roof was blown off the brick fell in among the patients, hitting a number, but one was seriously injured. The storm also struck the insane asylum. Not much damage was done there, but the patients were terror-stricken.

Forest Park, one of the largest in the country, suffered considerably, trees being leveled in every direction. The weather bureau officials report the downpour of rain the heaviest this season.

The storm was particularly severe in river towns, Keokuk, Alton and Quincy suffering. Reports from Springfield, Decatur, Edgingham and other Illinois towns say the rain was very heavy there.

MISSISSIPPI LYING.

Crystal Springs, Miss., June 25.—Mr. James Moreley, a prominent citizen of this county, was brutally murdered by a negro. This morning at 9:30 the negro was taken from the jail by a mob of two hundred and was lynched.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 25.—J. H. Bille, a prominent lawyer, was found dead in his bed this morning. He was a district attorney.

LYNCHING THREATEND.

Indignant People May Take the Law in Their Hands.

Corbin, Ky., June 25.—The murder of John W. Curry, the Louisville shoe drummer, by Dan L. Curry, yesterday, has caused widespread indignation, and threats of lynching the murderer are only made. As the circumstances become more clearly understood the more zealous the deeds appear.

Curry was at one time engaged to Mrs. Curry, and Curry has always been jealous of him. Curry was in the city yesterday on business.

Curry, meeting Corbin, said: "We will go before my wife, and if she says she is guilty of improper conduct with you, then I'll leave her; but if she says she's innocent, then one of us must die." Curry accompanied Corbin to his home, and in the presence of his wife Curry made accusations of improper conduct, all of which Corbin, as well as Mrs. Curry, emphatically denied. Curry then ordered Corbin out of the house, and as he rose from his chair Curry fired three in quick succession. Corbin threw up his hands and cried:

"Don't shoot any more, you've killed me," and fell to the floor dead. Curry, seeing his victim a moment, then fired three more shots into his prostrate form. The shooting took place in the presence of Curry's wife and little child.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict of willful murder. Corbin was a high Mason and a prominent member of the Travelers' Protective Association.

MORE COMPLICATIONS.

Arise in Lyon County Over the Penitentiary Building.

C. J. Canfield, Sheriff of Lyon County, Ky., has called on the commissioners.

Quite a sensation has been created at Nicholasville, over the fact of a suit yesterday through his attorney, Sam C. Molloy, at Paducah, by C. J. Canfield against Gov. Bradley and the commissioners.

The suit grows out of the attempt of the board to remove Canfield as clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary. The petition alleges that the statutes of Kentucky give the commissioners the right to remove for cause, but that no cause existed nor was he ever notified of removal.

The petition asks that the action of the board be declared illegal and that Canfield, who is now attempting to act as clerk, be required to vacate the office.

Canfield, while not in possession of the office and although refused admission, still holds the combination to the safe and keys to the desk in which the records of the penitentiary are kept.

BROKE THE BOAT.

Narrow Escape of Cooper Williams Yesterday.

Other Accident News of General Interest.

A cooper, named Williams, who lives near Third and Jackson, had a narrow escape yesterday over in the lake during the storm. He was out fishing in a "john boat" when the wind blew down a tree and it fell directly across the boat, splitting it in two. Williams narrowly escaped drowning, and borrowed a boat from Mr. George Jones, to which to return home.

Mr. R. E. Parrish, the lumber inspector, had a painful mishap yesterday in Langstaff-Orin lumber yard.

George Anderson, colored, an employee of the I. C. Co., had his left foot painfully mashed yesterday. A floor blew shut on it during the wind.

"Big Sandy," a load carrier at work on the I. C. shop addition, fell into a pit in the machine shops yesterday and was badly bruised up.

John Adams, a stove hand, who had a leg crushed while loading staves at Dyersburg a few days ago, was brought in last night and placed in the railroad hospital.

Master Edgar Fox, son of Prof. E. A. Fox, Principal of the Third District school, fell from a picket fence yesterday afternoon and was severely injured by having a prong stuck through his jaw.

STORM EVIDENCES.

Florence Station Gets a Hard Blow This Morning.

"Spirits Harper, of Florence Station, was in the city this morning, and reports that a severe storm passed over that section this morning about 3 o'clock, and did considerable damage to crops. He left before the full extent of the damage was learned.

Reports from southern Illinois are that the wheat crops have been badly damaged by the recent rains and wind. The grain has been blown and beaten down until it can hardly be harvested. Similar reports come from Graves county.

If you have a nice picture to frame send it to C. C. Fox, 118 North Fourth street.

PROVED FATAL.

Robt. Molett Died at 12:15 Last Night.

INQUEST HELD THIS AFTERNOON.

Robt. Smith Will Now Be War-ranted for Murder.

DIED OF CONCUSSION AND LOCKJAW.

Robert Molett, colored, who had been in a critical condition at the county jail for the past few days as a result of a blow near the right eye, inflicted by a brick thrown by Robt. Smith, died at 12:15 o'clock last night in terrible agony.

Day before yesterday Molett was taken to the city hall for trial, but the case was deferred and he was remanded to jail. He was in good spirits for about fifteen minutes after being locked up, but suddenly began to complain of pains in his head.

County Physician Brothers was called and administered to his wants, and he rested well that night, but yesterday began to grow worse, and blood and pus flowed from his mouth. His jaws were set, and he could not eat. The swelling changed from the right to the left side, and he began to suffer great pain. Dr. Brothers at first was confident Molett was discharging in order to have the trial postponed, but yesterday afternoon he went up to the jail, made another examination and informed Deputy Jailor Grady that the prisoner could not possibly live through the night. Three prisoners were left to attend him, and at 12:15, by a watch carried by one of the nurses, he breathed his last.

William Ballentine, who slept in the hospital, was called and sent after Deputy Jailor Grady, and this morning at 9 o'clock the remains were carried to Nance's undertaking establishment, and the time for holding the inquest set for 1 o'clock.

The deceased lived at New Orleans, but had been about here for several months, doing most any kind of work. He leaves no parents, but has a cousin in Grand Rivers.

Last week Molett, Robt. Smith and several others engaged in a crap game down about the river, and Smith won from Molett $1.75. Molett asked for the loan of a quart, and being refused, cut Smith on the throat, but the punch amounted only to a scratch. Molett claimed he was drunk and had no recollection of the cutting.

A day or two afterwards, however, Smith met him and demanded to know why he did it, and the two had an altercation. Smith hit Molett with a brick and ran. When Molett was picked up there was a pistol near him, but he swore it did not belong to him.

Mr. Mack Bailey saw the difficulty, however, and testified that Molett had the pistol in his hand when Smith struck him with the brick. Smith was held over on a charge of malicious assault and Molett for perjury.

Smith, when informed of Molett's death this morning, did not evince any fear or remorse, and said he felt sure he would be acquitted, as he struck Molett to keep him from shooting him.

Coroner Nance this afternoon at 3 o'clock held an inquest, and heard the evidence of Mr. Mack Bailey and Dr. Brothers. He will swear out a warrant against Smith this afternoon, charging him with murder.

The remains of Molett will be buried tomorrow. He is the third prisoner to die in the county jail in the past several years. Dr. Brothers says he died of concussion of the brain.

"ROMEO AND JULIET."

Goes On at the Casino Theatre Tonight.

Other Amusement Notes.—"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" at La Belle.

The Casino Theatre Company will tonight put on a new bill, but the burlesque, in which Mr. Charlemagne Koehler is to appear, is omitted on account of the failure of his costume to arrive, and will be on next week. Tonight "Romeo and Juliet," "The Tough Diamond," and specialties will be put on, and a large crowd is expected.

There was a small but appreciative audience at the Casino last night to witness the second production of "Queen Esther," under the direction of Prof. Charles Davis. The performance was very creditable, and passed off more smoothly than the one at Morton's opera house Monday night.

There was a fairly large crowd at LaBelle Park last night to witness "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," by the Phillips Stock Company. The performance was very good, and fairly appreciated by the audience.

MUCH ADD ABOUT NOTHING.

"Where Is Miss Beavers?" She Is Right Here.

And She Wasn't Murdered and She Wasn't Married.

The "Register" is well maintaining its pretensions of giving the news, and of comparing its features with those of other papers. This morning, under the more head caption, "Where Is Miss Beavers?" it proceeds to create a robust and very unnecessary sensation over her "mysterious disappearance," and concludes with the legible observation:

"Her friends fear that she has fallen the victim of foul play in some manner or else she has secretly eloped by prearrangement and married."

The facts in the whole matter are simply that Miss Eulah Beavers, of Paris, Tenn., came to Paducah Wednesday last to have her eyes treated by Dr. A. H. Edwards. She is a guest of Miss Perry Gerold, 815 South Fifth street, and yesterday afternoon started to the doctor's office to have an operation performed on her eyes.

She forgot the number of his office, and in looking about chance to meet Mrs. J. A. James, wife of License Inspector James, an old friend, and accompanied her to her home at Third and Madison, there spending the night. She turned up alive and well this morning, having escaped both the "foul play" and "marriage," arranged for her by an enterprising contemporary.

Citizens of Paducah.

Your attention is called to the proposition offered by the proprietors of the New Star Laundry at No. 120 North Fourth street, (Leach Block), to do any and every character of work done in this line, and upon the shortest notice possible to make the work satisfactory. As in our new place we are provided with modern appliances in each department of its apparatus: electric motor power, and every equipment essential to do rapid and thorough work, and to give to patrons every assurance offered by professional handymen anywhere. In changing our location from our old stand, No. 101 Broadway, to our most "slightful" position on North Fourth street, we were impelled, not alone by the lack of physical comfort and needed space for our employees, but chiefly for the reason that our business was so increased and a constantly growing patronage that we were forced to secure other and more desirable quarters. Five years ago we began business at the old stand on Broadway in a very limited way with one or two hands who were sufficient to answer our needs of help, but the business has so increased that more space and added machinery was an absolute necessity, with all of which we are now supplied. Large well ventilated rooms, every manner of needed machinery and appliance to furnish our fourteen employees (instead of one or two) means of constant employment in meeting the demands of our business. Large individual and family patronage throughout the city and adjacent cities, besides the work of the Palmer house and transient work from its hostelry and that of the Richmond House the greater portion of the time until its close recently, for all of which patronage we are profoundly thankful, and hope with the care and expense incurred by us in our change made, to have a continuation of the favors shown us by your patronage in the past and earnestly solicit the further test of our capacity to do satisfactory work, and to a largely increased extent, for which we are now fully prepared in every way, and respectfully ask every body to give us the opportunity. Call and see us. No. 120 North Fourth street.

MARCHING THROUGH THE VAL-

[Written for the Paducah Journal]
March boys, march, the trumpet it is sounding
To march all our forces well together,
While o'er the ground cannon balls
are bounding
Hitting come, missing, some and some asking whether
Luck favors them, or is it fore-determined
That "Nile Death" lives and seeks a light and shining mark
The mark is never by cowardice stained
That the way be dimmed 'tis never,
never dark—
For the light of Jesus guides all souls on Through the lone valley of Death a heavenly light
Remember God gave his begotten
son
To save all souls from that dark and
endless night,
For it is not Death to die and thus
end
Our life days upon this solitary
soil,
For when the summer comes Jesus
does send Strength to release us from all our early toil
And to come join his army far above
In blissful, peaceful, joyous heavenly life
Where all is supreme happiness and love
Free forever more from endless
woful life
